

EXPERT LECTURE REPORT

On 31st of march professor Dr.N.J.Sathe sir delivered a expert lecture of application of engineering. The objectives of this lecture were.

- 1) Application of geology in civil engineering projects i.e.dam, tunnel, etc.
- 2) To increase inthusitum about the geology in student.

The students of SE civil were gather in SEMINAR HALL for the expert lecture. The students showered with are knowledge of geological application he discussed step by step analysis of geology. The correlate different topic and made the lecture. Interesting he discussed the formation, classifications, nomenclature of minerals by giving practical's example, he explained formation of faults, folds, joints. The flistorical knowledge of about the formation of plates and continents in detail. He widely explained the favorable conditions for construction of dam. He explained koyna- dam in details. Finally the explained the paper pattern and also how to study for examination purpose.

The feedback of student was good and they were satisfied with lecture.

